

UK
UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY®

College of Social Work
Office of Professional Development and Continuing Education

Contemporary Perspectives on Treating Military Members, Veterans and their Families

The University of Kentucky College of Social Work, Department of Family Sciences, Veterans Resource Center, and the Lexington VA

Featuring distinguished plenary speaker

Colonel Jennifer Humphries, Ph.D., LCSW

Medical Service Corps, United States Army
Program Director, Army- Fayetteville State University Master of Social Work Program presenting

Current Trends in Military Social Work and Substance Use Disorder in the Military

Friday, May 8, 2015
8:00 a.m.- 4:30 p.m. EST

Breakout session topics include:

Military Sexual Assault: What Providers Need to Know
Citizen Soldiers: Challenges and Considerations for Guard and Reserve Members
Military 101
Moral Injury: The Unspoken Injury
Suicide Prevention Strategies for Today's Veterans
Community and VAMC Resources for Veterans
Veteran Exposure to Suicide: Prevalence and Correlates
Stress Factors and Resiliency in Military Families
Deployment Stress and Barriers to Seeking Treatment and more!

Location: The Campbell House, 1375 South Broadway, Lexington, KY 40504

CEUs: Approved for 6.0 credit hours by the Kentucky Board of Social Work, the Kentucky Board of Psychological Examiners, the Kentucky Board of Certified Alcohol and Drug Counselors, the Ohio Counselor, Social Worker, and Marriage and Family Therapist Board, and by the Kentucky Board of Nursing. KY Licensed Professional Counselor and KY Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist approval pending*

Cost: $ 120 includes lunch
$ 160 (day of event)
$ 25 Student rate for full-time students with student ID
(CE credit not available for the student rate - contact christina.gevedon@uky.edu to register)

Conference sponsorships/exhibit tables are available. Contact Jessica Morris at (859) 257-5345 or Jessicamorris@uky.edu

For More Information, or to Register Visit

CEU.UKY.EDU