

Distinguished Service Medal Commendation for Norman E. Arflack

The president of the United States of America, authorized by act of congress, 9 July, 1918, has awarded the Distinguished Service Medal to Brigadier General Norman E. Arflack, United States Army, for exceptionally meritorious service to the government over a 38-year career in positions of increasing responsibility, culminating as the Assistant Adjutant General. Brigadier General Arflack dedicated his service to the improvement of the organization and the increased readiness of the Kentucky National Guard. Brigadier General Arflack has been an aggressive, innovative and thoroughly professional officer throughout his career. His total commitment to the force and his uncompromising standards of conduct leave an unsurprised legacy in the history of the Kentucky National Guard. Brigadier General Arflack is the embodiment of a commissioned officer and leader. Brigadier General Arflack's achievements are in keeping with the finest traditions of military service and brings distinguished credit upon himself, the Kentucky National Guard and the United States Army.