Commissioner's Corner

Commissioner's Corner

Greetings teammates,

November was an outstanding month for the Commonwealth in recognizing our veterans, especially with numerous events, monuments, flag-placing ceremonies and parades throughout the week leading to and after Veterans Day. It was a busy, however, rewarding time for Team KDVA in which we participated in over 30 Veterans Day events during the days leading up to and after Veterans Day. For examples our Radcliff Veterans Centers residents served as grand marshal for the Vine Grove Veterans Day Parade, our KDVA benefit representatives and headquarters staff served as guest speakers to local high school or community Veterans Day events, KDVA hosted "Why Did You Serve" Women Veterans Virtual Event, and we teamed up with American Legion Post 157 for Homelessness Standdown event in Shelbyville, KY. In addition, I'm proud to say Veterans Day events and project were made possible by grants from our Kentucky Veterans Program Trust Fund to include a Union Civil War Monument unveiling in Madisonville, the World War II/Korean War monument dedication in Winchester, a grant supporting the Louisville Veterans Parade, a grant supporting Lexington Week of Valor events and a grant supporting KDVA/Shelbyville Homeless Veterans Standdown. Congratulations to all the grantees for making their veteran projects come to reality. Furthermore, I want to thank all the communities and many volunteers who supported our veterans centers and cemeteries in honoring our veterans and their legacies. I hope all of our veterans who took part in these events felt honored and respected because they deserve it!

As we approach December, and the close on 2025, we've got just a few more things for the community. For example, on December 11, we will be hosting the Wreaths Across America event, this time at the old Capitol in downtown Frankfort. Dress warm! Stay tuned for details on placing of wreaths for our five state veteran cemeteries.

The holiday season is a time to recoup, give thanks, and share joy with family and friends. It can also be a difficult time for those on their own during this season, whether it's because of required duties, service or any other reason. I just ask our veterans and military families to not isolate themselves this season. Reach out to your battle buddies and do something fun for yourselves.

Thank you all for what you do in supporting our great veterans and their families. I hope everyone has a great Happy Thanksgiving! HOOAH!

Very respectfully,

Whitney P. Allen, Jr.

Latest VA News

VA extends caregiver support program eligibility for “legacy” Veterans, caregivers

The Department of Veterans Affairs announced a final rule, published Sept. 29, which extends Program of Comprehensive Assistance for Family Caregivers eligibility for certain Veterans and their family caregivers through Sept. 30, 2028.

The extension means legacy participants, legacy applicants, and their family caregivers will remain eligible for PCAFC and will not experience a reduction in their monthly stipend based on a reassessment for an additional three years, with limited exceptions.

Legacy participants are Veterans or service members whose family caregivers were approved and designated by VA as of Sept. 30, 2020. Legacy applicants are Veterans or service members who applied for PCAFC before Oct. 1, 2020, and were accepted into the program on or after Oct. 1, 2020. The primary family caregiver must remain the same individual named in the application submitted before Oct. 1, 2020.

Key details of the extension include:

- An extended transition period for the legacy cohort.
- Continued eligibility and no reduction in stipends with limited exceptions.
- Members of the legacy cohort may still be discharged or revoked from PCAFC in certain circumstances, such as at the request of the Veteran or family caregiver, or for noncompliance with program requirements.

Suspension of certain reassessments remains in effect. Individuals may still request a reassessment, including if they believe they are eligible for increased support.

VA will continue to consider additional changes to PCAFC, as outlined in a proposed rule published Dec. 6, 2024.

For more information about VA's Caregiver Program, visit www.caregiver.va.gov. Veterans and their family members and caregivers can also call the Caregiver Support Line at 855-260-3274, Monday–Friday, 8 a.m.–8 p.m. ET or connect with their local Caregiver Support Program Team using the locator tool at https://www.caregiver.va.gov/support/New_CSC_Page.asp.

Kirk Shepherd graduates from SAGE 2025 Program

Kirk Shepherd graduated the SAGE program Nov. 20, 2025.

Council of State Government – South’s (CSG-South) Staff Academy for Governmental Excellence (SAGE) 2025. SAGE is a five-day professional leadership development program for Southern state legislative, judicial, executive and agency staff. In addition to developing their personal and professional leadership skills, participants build a network of peers from across the Southern region. By shaping staff leaders, SAGE ultimately aims to provide the public with more effective state governments.

The SAGE is very competitive. Only two individuals are selected from each state. Well, this is the third year KDVA has a great teammate selected. Past KDVA selectees were our Benefits Division’s teammates Michelle Rustin and Sherrie Davis.

Kentucky
Career Center
Career Training Employer

Veterans can visit their Kentucky Career Center and take advantage of the following no-cost services:

- Career assessments
- Labor market information
- Access to training opportunities, job fairs, and workshops
- Job interview preparation
- Resume and cover letter assistance
- Assistance with KEE Suite
- Access to computers and free Internet service
- Help applying for federal employment and training programs in which veterans receive priority of service

Specialized Staff

Some veterans face significant barriers that make it difficult for them to find suitable employment, especially vets who are transitioning into civilian life. Most offices have specialized staff—all of whom are veterans—who work closely with employers to create more opportunities for veterans and provide the following services to veterans themselves:

- Help developing an employability plan and goals
- Coaching in individual and group settings
- Referrals to supportive services, including vocational rehabilitation, transportation, elder care, food and nutrition services, and non-profit organizations that address homelessness

Priority of Service for Veterans

U.S. military veterans and other covered persons receive Priority of Service (POS) in all employment, training, and placement services in any workforce preparation program funded by the U.S. Department of Labor.

Veterans receive access to services or resources provided sooner than others.

Covered persons include the spouse of a veteran who died of a service-connected disability, has a total service-connected disability, is missing in action, or is a prisoner of war.

For more information about POS and other programs for veterans, visit <https://www.dol.gov/vets/>

National Veterans Memorial and Museum Initiative

SHARE YOUR STORY

The National Veterans Memorial and Museum (NVMM) partnered with StoryCorps' Military Voices Initiative to collect, preserve, and amplify the stories and experiences of our nation's Veterans.

All those touched by military service, including active-duty service members, Veterans, spouses, children, friends, and community members are invited to record a conversation about a Veteran's experience. At the end of the conversation, you will receive a digital copy of the interview, while a second copy will be preserved in the NVMM Story Collection and the American Folklife Center at the Library of Congress.

By adding to the NVMM Story Collection, you ensure the legacy of service lives on – not just in history books, but in the hearts and minds of future generations!

Great Questions from the NVMM

Great Questions List

Choose a few questions from the list below or come up with your own. No need to feel like you have to ask every question!

Military Service

- When were you in the military? Which branch did you serve in?
- What motivated you to join the military?
- How did your friends and family react when you told them your plans to serve?
- What was it like when you left home to begin your journey in the military?
- Tell me about basic training. Were you prepared for military life? What were you unprepared for?
- Where were you stationed during your time in service? What was your favorite or least favorite place to be?
- What jobs did you have in the military?
- Describe your daily life while in the service.
- If you served in combat and are comfortable sharing, what was that experience like? When and where were you in combat?
- How did you stay in touch with friends and family while in the service?
- Describe your transition from military to civilian life. Was it easy or difficult? Why?
- What did you do after leaving the military?
- What lessons did your service teach you that you still carry with you?
- What does your service mean to you?

Military & Veteran Family Members

These questions are great when speaking to a family member about someone who served in the military.

- What do you see as our family's legacy? How does military service influence that legacy?
- In which branches of the military have our family members served?
- What was it like growing up with a family member in the military?
- What lessons did you learn from the service of a family member?
- Can you tell me about when you became a military family member?
- How did your life change when your family member entered the service?
- Do you have advice for other military family members?
- Is there anything you wish service members and civilians understood about being the family member of a service member?
- Do you remember your favorite place you lived? What was special about it?
- How did being a military child shape your life?
- Can you tell me about a person that you felt understood by as the child of a service member?

Military Women's Memorial "Tell Her Story"

The Military Women's Memorial (MWM) is the only major national memorial honoring all servicewomen – past, present and future. The MWM honors more than 3 million women who served and continue to serve in the U.S. Armed Forces since the American Revolution.

Women's military service should be no less recognized than men's but historically the focus of history and preservation has been on men.

Why it's Important to Register?

EVERY STORY is important, EVERY STORY deserves to be told. Yet we have lost most of our WWI women veterans and our WWII women are fast coming to their final chapter. What history we have not recorded will be lost with them. We absolutely CANNOT let another generation go by without ensuring that our collective contributions are captured and remembered.

Please REGISTER HERE : www.womensmemorial.org

There is no cost to register! You can register any woman you know who is in or has served in the military. Let's keep "HER-Story alive!"
